

● YOUNG CULTURAL AMBASSADORS 2021

27th Aug – 2nd September

● SHADES OF DARK AND LIGHT OF MICHAEL HARRISON

3rd Sept – 9th Sept

Paintings and 3D work from both sides of the artist's workstreams. From the Lightside; a mix of formal watercolours, humour, and abstract works. From the Darkside; a body of more thought-provoking and poetic work from my deeper self.

● MAX SHEPPARD

10th Sept – 16th Sept

● A SLICE OF ART FROM STUDIO ONE.

17th Sept – 29th Sept

This group show stars artists at different stages of their Artistic Journey.

The work was produced during time spent with Jacqueline Newbury at Beach Creative.

● THREE WEAVERS RETURN

1st Oct - 7th Oct

Mary Butcher - Traditionally trained locally in willow and rush but now exploring a wealth of creative possibilities in a wider range of materials

Gillian Bull – Originally a rug weaver but has focussed on tapestry weaving since 2006 and continues to develop designs in related techniques.

Dianne Miles – A tapestry weaver also now exploring new techniques in the broader field of textile art.

● PLAY PARADOX - IN NO SENSE, INNOCENCE

8th Oct – 28th Oct

Paradox Artists Collective takes on the theme of the Paradoxes in Play. Should Play hurt? Play by the rules - but who makes the rules? Bang, bang you're dead! But I was only playing.

● HOUSE BOUND

● CERAMIC, PRINT AND PLANT

26th Nov – 2nd Dec

Ceramic print and plant pop-up shop. Eight Kent based printmakers and ceramic artists showing a range of unique work. Includes limited edition prints, homewares, textiles, cards and gifts alongside a collection of beautiful indoor plants.

● LOCK DOWN

26th Nov – 2nd Dec

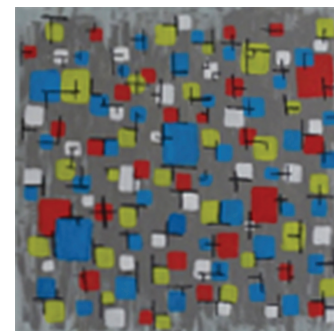

The group from MENCAP have used flower presses which have been made in the workshop. The flowers were then photographed on a light box. We sowed wild flower seeds in our garden in late spring which have been photographed and are in this exhibit.

● RETROSPECT - TO A DEGREE.

3rd Dec – 16th Dec

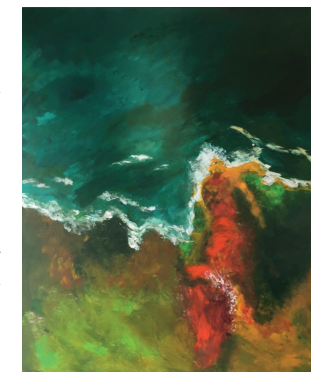

A study of colour, line and shape. This Exhibition is a retrospective of my studies during my time at UCA Canterbury between my Foundation year, my BA and MA. It started with an infatuation with Piet Mondrian and continued with Sol Le Witt. The presence of primary colour on canvas can be a bold one. Simple modernist themes. I have learnt so much through my time at university. This is a chance to share my efforts. Andrew Pantling

● MOTHER EARTH

17th Dec – 23rd Dec

This exhibition is 100% non profit and will consist of a series of large scale abstract/earth paintings, framed original paintings and prints by Lorraine Bernier. Artwork can be purchased by donation to listed climate and children's charities at the exhibition.

● BOB JOHNSTON

17th Dec – 23rd Dec

As a young man I was very fired up about art but I abandoned it in my mid 20s. When I took it up again a few years ago I decided to make more of a study of some of the techniques about which I was pretty ignorant. I am very much enjoying the learning process.

● SUNDAY ART SCHOOL

The register is still open for applicants to our FREE Young Cultural Ambassadors Sunday Art School, The register is open for applicants to our Spring Term Sunday Art School which starts on 9 January 2022. We are currently running the Autumn Sunday Art School, drop in and take a look if you may be interested. (Not half term week).

This is only open to young people aged 14-18 residing in the Canterbury City Council (CCC) postcode areas: Herne Bay, Whitstable Canterbury and Rural, as it is funded by CCC.,

The programme is a 10-week course focusing on bookbinding, expressive drawing, printmaking (monoprint, lino, collograph and screen), cyanotypes, 3D/photography project, painting and fanzines. The aim is to explore materials and techniques.

As part of the project, participants will receive a free art kit which will be theirs on completion of the course. This is funded by the University for the Creative Arts (UCA).

With the uncertainty around Covid this winter, we would ask that participants take a lateral flow test each week before attending, as will the staff. Should restrictions be imposed again, we are able to move the course to an online model.

● CULTURAL AMBASSADOR PROGRAMME

We are about to launch our annual programme for adult learners. As yet we are unsure about the exact format, but at present we are looking to offer a blended model of delivery for this 12-week course, with some sessions taught through the Course Guide, videos and online meetings, and some sessions taught in the studio on a Sunday afternoon from 3pm-5pm. The course is free, and funded by the University for the Creative Arts (UCA), but it is only open to participants who have NOT studied at degree level (Level 4 and above) in any subject.

The course is suitable for beginners or returners to art. The focus is on experimenting with different materials and techniques; the formal teaching of art may be offered on a separate course in future.

Participants on the Cultural Ambassador course will be well placed to make applications to UCA to undertake their Access for Art and Design or Foundation course or to continue their practice independently.

Please contact Gill at drgillianwilson2@icloud.com for more information and to be placed on the waiting list for updates on application.

beach creative

September to December 2021

NOW OPEN SEVEN DAYS A WEEK

Beach Creative is back, not yet with our usual full programme of workshops and classes, but with a varied and exciting run of exhibitions. See inside for details of The Cultural Ambassadors programme as well as the Sunday Art School for 14 to 18 year olds, both run by Dr Gill Wilson.

The ever popular Friday Art Group is back and now under the stewardship of Trish Flynn, well known Whitstable artist.
